Oregon Horse Association Presents

Despooking Your Horse with Madison Mounted Police

Saturday May 22, 2010
Three sessions available

Clinicians: Madison Mounted Police

Discover the secrets of despooking that the Madison Mounted Patrol use with their horses that enable them to work effectively through environments with smoke, loud noises and bright lights. The unit regularly works in the downtown area to help manage bar crowds and other issues. Mounted officers also work special events, assist in search and rescue efforts, and make community/public appearances.

Participants will:

- Learn how to establish space and leadership
- Practice exercises in despooking

Cost: Riders: $25 OHA member/4-H member/MEC Boarder; $35 Non-member
Auditors: $10 OHA member/4-H member/MEC Boarder; $15 Non-member

Location: Mandt's Equestrian Center
4448 Cty. Rd. B
Oregon, WI 53575

Questions: Call Keri Smith at 608-835-5847 or Carrie Waters Schmidt at 608-206-5676

Registration: Pre-registration required to participate with a horse, use registration form found below. Checks made payable to Oregon Horse Association.
