Q&A: Equine Law and Insurance

Saturday – April 10th 9:30 am - 12 pm
Country View Vet Service, Oregon, WI

Clinicians: Jennifer Hayden - Equine Law Attorney
Katlin Zweep - Equine Insurance Agent

Jennifer Hayden has equine related experience of over 12 years and has shown in hunter under saddle, hunt seat equitation, reining, halter, western pleasure and equitation, and trail. Professionally, Jennifer practices law along with the law firm Storm, Balgeman, Miller & Klippel. Her practice involves sales and lease agreements, training and breeding contracts, claims in regards to equine death, injury, negligence or property damage and zoning issues.

Katlin Zweep has been riding and showing Quarter Horses for 19 years. She actively shows on the International Buckskin Horse Circuit where she shows her all around mare in everything from showmanship, trail, hunter hack, barrels, western pleasure to HUS. She is an Account Executive with Anew Insurance Agency Inc. and specifically enjoys dealing with equine insurance where she can draw upon her experience and knowledge to more accurately insure both horse owners and their horses.

Objectives: Participants can ask questions related to their agreements such as boarding, sales and lease agreements, equine liability, equine valuation, and questions pertaining to existing equine insurance policies as well as learn about the various types of equine related insurance.
